PRESS RELEASE

Woodland Park, CO – October 13, 2020
For Immediate Release

On Aug. 11, 2020, the City of Woodland Park began accepting applications for its special CARES Act allocation of two types of relief fund grants: one to aid businesses and nonprofits, and the second to assist residents. The initial review began on Sept. 30.

The City received 25 completed applications prior to the Sept. 30 initial review: 12 business applications, 5 nonprofit applications, and 8 resident applications. The total funding that will be granted to these 25 organizations and residents is $178,718.46. The City will begin processing these funds immediately.

The City is still accepting applications for Coronavirus Relief Funds until Oct. 26 at 5 pm. There is over $250,000 of remaining funds to be awarded. Businesses and nonprofits can receive up to $15,000 in funds. Residents can receive up to $500 in funds per household. For additional information and to apply, please refer to the Coronavirus Relief Fund \(CVRF\) page on our website. If you have specific questions about the application process, please contact CVRF Manager Brittany Meyers at 719-687-3291 or cvmfapp@city-woodlandpark.org.
