18.06.250 Home Occupations "Home Occupations" means any occupation or profession conducted entirely within a dwelling unit and which meets the standards of Section 18.33.150 of this title.

18.33.150 Home Occupation Standards

- A. The home occupation or profession shall be conducted within a dwelling unit.
- B. The home occupation shall occupy no more than twenty five percent (25%) of the total gross floor area of the dwelling unit.
- C. The home occupation use shall be clearly incidental and subordinate to the use of the dwelling unit for residential purposes.
- D. Display or storage of goods or materials in the premises is limited to the area provided for the home occupation.
- E. No article may be sold or offered for sale on the premises of the home occupation except such as may be produced by residents of the dwelling residing on the premises.
- F. There shall be no exterior displays, storage, vehicles or other exterior indication of the home occupation or variation from the residential nameplates, in accordance with Section 18.48.020 (B).
- G. The home occupation shall not create noise, dust, vibration, smell, smoke, glare, electrical interference, fire hazard, congestion to traffic flow, parking problems or any other nuisance or hazard which is perceivable at or beyond the lot lines of the lot in which the dwelling is located.
- H. No excessive traffic shall be generated by the home occupation.
- I. The home occupation shall provide for only the minimum off-street parking spaces required.
- J. The home occupation shall not unduly interfere with public use of adjoining streets, alleys, or driveways.
- K. The home occupation shall not require internal or external alterations or construction features or equipment or machinery not customarily found in a residential dwelling.
- L. The receipt or delivery of merchandise, goods or supplies for use in the home occupation shall be limited to the United States mail, similar parcel delivery service or private vehicles with a gross vehicle weight rating (GVWR) of ten-thousand pounds or less.
- M. The home occupation shall have a valid license from the City.
- N. The home occupation shall be required to secure an approved zoning development permit. Prior to permit approval the zoning development permit application shall be reviewed by the Fire District fire inspector and the following City departments:
 1. Police
 2. Building
 3. City Clerk
