

Woodland Park City Council Announces New City Manager

Woodland Park, CO – December 7, 2023

The City of Woodland Park is pleased to announce the hire of Aaron Vassalotti as Woodland Park's new City Manager. Aaron was sworn in by the City Council at the regularly scheduled City of Woodland Park, City Council meeting on December 7, 2023.

Aaron Vassalotti holds a Master's of Business Administration from Florida Atlantic University in Boca Raton, Florida. His prior experience includes serving as Interim City Manager and Finance Director for the City of Woodland Park and the Division Manager and Accounting Manager for the Palm Beach County Sheriff's Office. He is certified as a certified public accountant (CPA) and a certified government finance officer (CGFO).

The City contracted with the executive search firm Columbia LTD and was engaged in a comprehensive recruitment. A competitive pool of candidates from across the country and internationally underwent a series of interviews to narrow down the pool from over 73 candidates before Aaron was announced as the City's finalist.

Aaron is married and a proud father to two sons. He and his wife have enjoyed establishing Woodland Park as their new home and look forward to the years ahead of raising their family in the mountains of Colorado.
